

Directions and parking

Classrooms for most of our programs are located on Appian Way. Please check your pre-institute mailing for program specific registration locations and directions as these vary.

Please be advised that on-street parking is very difficult to find in and around Harvard Square, and in many areas parking is prohibited without a resident parking permit. Parking in area lots or garages is quite expensive, particularly for multiple-day stays. Consequently, program participants are discouraged from bringing automobiles to campus.
