2017 Leadership Development Programs

The application deadline for MDP, MLE, and IEM is Friday, March 3, 2017.

Application Checklist:

✓ Select your program of interest. If you are not sure which program is best for you, please contact us to discuss your professional background, current leadership responsibilities, and future professional development interests.

✓ Access the online application.

✓ Provide your personal profile and organizational information.

✓ Respond to two short (250 word) essay questions. The most helpful statements provide a clear explanation of why your program of interest is appropriate at this stage in your professional career and the expected benefits from program participation.

   1. Explain how participation in the program will benefit your work and describe one or more significant challenges you would like to explore during the program.

   2. In what ways do you expect your particular skills, experience and perspective to contribute to group discussions?

✓ Upload your resume/curriculum vitae as a single MS Word or PDF document. Please be sure that the following elements of your professional and educational background are provided in reverse-chronological order, using the following format:

   1. Professional Experience (for each position, include organization name, dates worked, title or position held, a brief description of responsibilities)

   2. Educational Background (for each institution attended, include its name, dates of attendance or date when degree was conferred, and degree earned)

✓ Submit two letters of recommendation. One letter must be from your current supervisor and one letter from a professional colleague. Your application will be complete only upon receipt of the two recommendations letters. Once the online portion of your application is submitted, an invitation email will be sent to both your supervisor and colleague recommenders providing instructions for the submission of their letters.

Admission decisions will be communicated via email to all candidates by mid-April 2017.
